MISSOULA--

The University Liquid Assets Corporation (ULAC) at the University of Montana in Missoula will sponsor the "4th Annual ULAC Kegger Benefit" Saturday, May 10, to raise funds for the UM Library, the Missoula County Sheriff's Youth Summer Camp and the Missoula County Humane Society.

A total of 15,500 gallons of beer have been ordered for the kegger, which will be from 11 a.m. to dusk at the K-O Rodeo Grounds, four miles south of Missoula on Upper Miller Creek Road. Entertainment will be provided by "Doug Kershaw," the "Earl Scruggs Review," "Mission Mountain Wood Band" and "The Pecos." Comedian Doug Shaw will be master of ceremonies.

More than 10,000 persons are expected for the kegger. Persons must be age 18 or older to be admitted to the kegger site.

Clark W. Hanson, Sidney, ULAC president and board chairman, said a total of $10,781.38 was raised for UM Library books at the previous three ULAC keggers. The $5-per-person donations for this year's kegger will be accepted at the kegger site Saturday.

For safety reasons, no glass containers will be allowed at the kegger. The ULAC has purchased 4,000 64-ounce plastic pitchers for the event. The <sup>souvenir</sup> pitchers, being sold for $1 each at the Student Bookstore in the University Center, also will be available at the kegger Saturday. Those attending the kegger may bring their own plastic cups. Only a limited number of cups will be available at the kegger.
